CURIOSITIES OF THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

The following is taken from the New York Tribune of February 22d:

Among the curiosities of the Subscription to the seven-thirty loan on Monday was a request from the Treasury Agent at Santa Fe, in New Mexico, that one hundred thousand dollars of the bonds be sent immediately, as many Mexicans and Americans desired to invest, and had the money in hand to do so. Also, about fifteen thousand dollars in varied lots paid in by Colonel Wagner for some one hundred and fifty colored soldiers in Camp William Penn. Also, two hundred thousand dollars subscribed by the Commercial Bank of Tennessee. Also, one hundred and thirty-seven thousand one hundred and sixty-five dollars in a single check, from Mr. Hartley, Hyde [illegible] of the Hyde [illegible] Farm, Detroit, who not only puts his own money into seven-thirties, but gathers up the loose money around, and sends it forward to be invested for account of its owners. Also, an offer from some miners in California to put thirty-five thousand dollars of compound interest notes into seven-thirties, if they would be received. Louisville, Kentucky, sent forward three thousand dollars, and intimated that Sherman and Grant would soon make Government bonds the rage with all Kentuckians who had money to invest. We learn from Pennsylvania, in which State the lawful rate of interest is six per cent., that a great calling in of farm and other mortgages has begun, with a view to placing country capital in seven-thirties, for the higher interest and the greater security and convenience.

A large grey eagle with a bell around its neck lately made its appearance near Portsmouth, N. H. It was supposed to be a bird which was formerly a pet at Cape Porpoise, but which was set adrift with a sleigh bell attached to its neck, as a punishment for his frequent raids upon the chicken chops.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1865.

Capture of Richmond Confirmed.

The following dispatch, over the name of Mr. Rankin, gives us the assurance that Richmond was indeed taken, though the full dispatches we hoped for are unfortunately delayed, probably by the pressure of private messages on the overland route, as these have the precedence. But we are satisfied to have explicit confirmation that places the fact beyond a doubt:

CHICAGO, April 3.—Richmond was occupied by our troops under Weitzel at quarter past eight o'clock this Monday morning.

(Signed) RANKIN.

Richmond.

Yesterday morning there may have been early issues of the Richmond papers as usual. But this morning there were none. Yet the people that were in the streets of that city this morning did not lack for news or excitement, or miss them, though the morning and evening editions of the Richmond papers have utterly ceased for the present, and it is hoped, so far as their rebel utterances are concerned, have ceased for evermore. John Mitchel, the Celtic rebel, wanders forth no more an editor, and his flight cuts only a small figure in the retiring throng of routed and discomfited political and military rebels that are rushing anywhere to avoid the dreaded presence of the conquering Yankee in their own streets and dwellings.

There will be different quotations in the future from the Richmond corps editorial; there will be a different class of editors, and articles; different papers and different readers; different audiences to hear public affairs discussed at the African Church, and Hunter will be excused from speaking there again upon public affairs. Stephens will no more propose peace projects there, for peace will reign there now under good Federal rule. Davis will be spared Confederate criticism and Lee need make no more reports to a Richmond Senate. Even that old reprobate of a weathercock, Henry S. Foote, could ask no more effective disposal of his old chums and his worst antipathies, than to see them scattered from the rebel Capital and staring in the face the consequences of their folly, its treasonable character at last summoned to its final account.

The Richmond Congress is one of the things that have been, and the fierce and frequent vauntings that the last man should be furnished to defend the last ditch, made by so many Confederate stump orators in buncombe, meant to inspire wornout Confederate zeal, is aptly illustrated by the fact that they have not stopped to ask or calculate where the last ditch might be in this hurried leave-taking. Following the old saying, "the devil take the hindermost," Dixie has forgotten, at the most opportune moment imaginable, to harangue its followers; and so, while it still lives in theory, "the last ditch" is effectually lost sight of in practice. The Richmond Congress adjourned sine die. With prescient cunning it saw the coming end, and leaving the rabble and the army to meet it, hurried off to secure the safety of its members.

The Libby prison may become a tobacco warehouse again, if its accursed minions have not ere this consigned it to flames, but it can never more consign Union men to an infernal prison house. Indeed, it should be spared that its history may be a lesson to the coming generation of F. F. V.'s that they never can lose sight of. It is no small gratification to us to know that Gen. Winder is permanently relieved from acting as its Governor, and that rebel guards have no more duties to fulfill there. Libby and Belle Isle will have much to say in the future, and their word will go far to insure a verdict from impartial history, that this rebellion was wicked in its inception and too cruel in its career! Southern leaders can never confront upon those pages, the horrid scenes of Southern prisons without losing the respect of all the world.

The time will never come when the siege of Richmond will be forgotten, least of all by those who may live in its vicinity. For many miles around, the earth has been thrown up into defences, and the face of nature changed in obedience to the commands of war. Here will ever remain the long extended lines behind which either army fought, and when the time shall come that the farm-house shall again rise, and the plowshare shall again turn the soil of lately neglected fields, then many a solid shot or piece of shell will come to light, and many a relic be found of the time when Grant and his legions besieged the Confederate Capital. The time will come when oaks shall shade mounds that now are grim fortresses; when the willow will grow in the ditches that lately marked the hostile lines; when the early flowers of Spring shall blossom upon hillocks that are now fresh made graves. A century hence will be read the journals of to-day, and the words, "All quiet on the lines before Richmond," will sound strangely in company with the fact that the screaming shell and the dull roar of cannonades was interspersed with night attacks and picket firing to make up the "quiet" of this stormy time.

Richmond is ours at last. The news seemed too good to be true, and its first announcement was in too brief a form to be satisfactory and conclusive, but the word comes after another day that it is so, and we need not doubt. The value of the event cannot be calculated, and this loss of the Confederate Capital, with all its laboured defences, and despite the many thousand brave and daring spirits who defended it, is calculated to dispirit the leaders and demoralize the rank and file of the rebellion.

As the natural effect too of this great National victory, peace comes near our doors, and peace Democracy wilts and withers in the sunlight of success. A rebel with all his sins upon him, that has dared to fight for success commands some respect, and to-day and forever will stand fairer before the world, and leave a more honorable record for his children than will the venal wretches who have aided rebellion by the cry of peace, in hypocritical sympathy with any cause that might defeat the measures of the Government and place themselves in power. The Copperheads of the North lose all, when within a few weeks time, the valor of our armies, the wisdom of our statesmen and generals and the confidence of the people shall have brought us peace once more.

LIEUT. LAMSON.—Oregon has a representative in the U. S. Navy that has done himself and his State much credit during the war, in the person of Roswell H. Lamson, of Yamhill county, who was a scholar in the Naval Academy at Annapolis when the war commenced. He was given an opportunity and has risen from the lowest position as an officer, to command his own vessel, having on many occasions shown his bravery and capacity. In a letter written to his parents published in the Statesman, he gives his experience in connection with the explosion of the powder boat at Fort Fisher, in which not he took a prominent part. We recollect Roswell when he went to school at Salem, and are gratified to hear of his honorable success.

The Lieut. General [illegible] congratulates the army, and says that two lessons are learned. One that no fortification, however strong, will protect an army from an intrepid [illegible] unless vigilantly guarded. The other, that disaster or misfortune is not irreparable when energy and bravery are displayed [illegible] to recover what is lost and to promptly resume the offensive.

Grant's Dispatch.

Ninth Corps, [illegible] killed, 70 wounded, [illegible] missing, 506. Our captures by Second Corps were 531. This afternoon I am in receipt of Sherman's report of operations from the time he left Fayetteville up to the 22d of this month. His own loss he says will be covered by 2,500 men since he left Savannah, many of them but slightly wounded.

The U. S. Revenue Cutter Joe Lane arrived at Victoria March 27th. She was on special duty, with Captain Watson, Inspector of Light houses, on board.

We learn that the steel schooner [illegible] will be placed by Janion, Green & Rhodes on the route between Victoria and China, and the schooner [illegible] will take the place of the [illegible] in the Honolulu trade.

The schooner Kate, with fifteen tons of liver oil [illegible] on board, had started out to the banks on a fishing expedition.

A Portland correspondent of the [illegible] says the majority of the arriving miners leave immediately for the upper country [illegible] they will not eat a meal in Portland [illegible] the truth is that Portland [illegible] excellent [illegible] accommodation [illegible] H. B. knows is the case [illegible] What Cheer House, where he lives [illegible] this winter.

WASHINGTON HAUNTED.—The [illegible] tells a story [illegible] received from private sources of a family lately resident there, who removed to San Francisco and rented a house near the Presidio. An unpleasant smell was perceived in the house, which grew intolerable, and resulted at last in discovering, under the floor, the body of a murdered man [illegible] advanced stage of decomposition. The family immediately vacated the premises.

THE SAME OLD GREENBACK CASE.
I AM STILL COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862) for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that
JACOB MAYER
Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years at which time there was no such currency in use, and it was understood that the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the
CITY OF PARIS STORE,
Making less than two-fifths of the rent amount said Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to allow the public what kind of a man he is to take such unfair advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by [illegible] SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

San Francisco Legal Tender Notes [illegible]
New York Gold Quotations [illegible]

SHALL WE CELEBRATE?—There seemed to be general satisfaction at the glorious news yesterday. Richmond is taken [illegible], and we should at least honor the brave men who have won, who lost in the encounter, by celebrating the victory they [illegible] to win. We venture the assertion that a stranger placed in our streets yesterday would not have suspected that such a great cause for national rejoicing existed, unless he guessed it from seeing that every sail in port and the steamers plying on the river had their colors flying in honor of some unusual event. The firemen will turn out at a moment's warning, and Chief Buchtel says that a tap of bells will mean that they are wanted. In case the celebration is determined upon. Some body should have acted before this. San Francisco did not wait, but made the welkin ring when the news came. If we express an opinion it will be this: that the Mayor should initiate a movement, such as is proper on this occasion, and take the lead in celebrating perhaps the most momentous event of our lifetime. So we put the main question—shall we celebrate to-day?

EXPORT OF A CHINAMAN.—Yesterday Front street in this city was the scene of a somewhat unique but rather picturesque procession, on the way to the East Portland cemetery, being no less than an array of Celestials with their customary pomp, on the occasion of taking from the grave a deceased member of their species for export to the "Flowery land." The van was led by an escort of the sterner sex on horseback, followed by closed carriages with the Celestial "beauties," then an open vehicle filled with Joshes, in all their glory. Next came an open wagon containing the "food for the dead," a dressed hog weighing about one ton, in Celestial enumeration 1235 lbs; a dressed sheep, and other "fancy" dishes, highly ornamented. The procession was delayed for some time awaiting the favorite ferry-boat of the Melican drivers, when the cortege and the "Joshes" were reviewed by an anxious crowd of spectators. At the cemetery the deceased Celestial was removed from the earth and in his place the hog and sheep lowered, when the procession returned to the city, going through with the usual rites of their long established customs and ceremonies. The John will be sent to Victoria by the steamer Geo. S. Wright, and from there will be forwarded direct to China by Jauning, Green & Co., who are soon to dispatch a vessel for that country direct. This is the first of this character of export that has left Portland for China, although several have left the State.

CASS'S NEW BUILDING.—The public of this city have been familiar with the words forming the above caption, since the completion of the building now occupied by Wells, Fargo & Co., and the Portland Library Association, corner of Stark and First streets. Yesterday the old frame, which has been known for years as the "Identical Saloon of Governor Byrnes," was disposed of under the hammer to Mr. Burke, who commenced immediately "to take it away," and its site is to be that of a building uniform in appearance to the Express Office structure fronting on Stark street. It will be used as before mentioned as an Assay Office. The main entrance to the upper part will be the same as has heretofore been in use by the O. S. N. Co., and individuals whose offices were in the three story brick corner of Front and Stark. Mr. E. M. Burton is contractor for the erection of the new brick three stories and basement.

OUR "AARON" HEARD FROM.—On board the Moses Taylor, on the 22d of February, the passengers bound east from San Francisco, joined together in commemorating the birth of the Father of his Country, GEORGE WASHINGTON. Proceedings of the ceremonies have been furnished us, but we are compelled to forego its publication. Our late townsman Mr. A. Hostwiler, acted in the capacity of President on the occasion. Judge H. C. Clark delivered the address. Frank Hussey and others furnished the music and singing. In the evening a number of gentlemen, accompanied by ladies, met on the illuminated deck and had a social "hop," while a display of fireworks by the officers of the steamer, ended the holiday on the bosom of the Pacific.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION WORK.—W. S. Ladd, Esq., has received acknowledgment by letter from the central office of the United States Christian Commission, Philadelphia, in which the greatest gratitude is expressed for the receipt of $8,106 75 in December, which found the Treasury of the Commission empty, under the constant drain of about $6,000 daily for the objects of the Association. That from Oregon, and $5,500 from Honolulu, (raised by the ladies of the Sandwich Islands,) could not have been more timely welcome or Providential.

SEVERE CASE OF POISONING.—Johnny Gallagher, son of Mrs. Dorsey, living at the corner of Washington and Second streets, in this city, was last evening badly poisoned by drinking some mixture from a bottle which he found in one of the rooms of the house. Medical aid was at once obtained, but all efforts to relieve the little sufferer seemed unavailing. At 11 o'clock Dr. Watkins pronounced the case a hopeless one. Mrs. D. has been keeping a boarding and lodging house, and the bottle is supposed to have been left in one of the rooms by a late occupant. The child is about three years of age.

A CANCER CURED.—Dr. Henley, of this city, on Monday took a cancer from the face of Mr. Patrick, after the application of medicines one week. He is performing wonderful cures, and no mistake, testimonials of which, we are assured by parties who have been under his treatment, will soon be made public.

GENTLEMEN who subscribed to the Christian Commission fund at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening last, are requested to hand the amount subscribed to W. S. Ladd, Treasurer, at the Banking House of Ladd & Tilton.

THE NEW FLOURING MILL.—Mr. G. W. Vaughn to-day will let the contract for the erection of his new flouring mill in this city, on Front, at the corner of Madison street.

THE STEAMSHIPS.—The steamship Pacific sailed from San Francisco for this port direct, about 12 o'clock, yesterday. The Brother Jonathan is advertised to leave the same port on the 8th, for this city direct.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The steamer George S. Wright, S. F. Lewis Commander, is advertised to leave Couch's wharf for Victoria and New Westminster on Friday, the 7th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

FIREMEN, BE ON HAND.—Chief Buchtel says that a tap on the bells will mean that the firemen are wanted to turn out to celebrate.

FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.—A special meeting of the circle of F. B., will be held at the Hall on Oak street, on Thursday evening the 6th inst., at half-past seven o'clock. A general attendance is requested, as business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

J. H. EGAN, Secretary.

SANITARY.—There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society at the Baptist Church, this afternoon at three o'clock. Friends of the cause are cordially invited to attend.

MRS. W. N. GRISWOLD, Sec'y.

The Great Flag.

A Lady of this city having proposed one of our Fire Companies a United States Flag, ordered the same from San Francisco and by mistake described it 35 by 25 yards, instead of feet. The Great Flag arrived here, but it was so large that there is no flag-staff to hold it, therefore she returned it to San Francisco to be exchanged for one of the size that can be placed where the Fire Company may please to raise the same, as a present from the lady.

IMPURE BREATH.—Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to its possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from their source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself, the subject is so delicate—your most intimate friend will not mention it. Why not remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness, at once, by using that justly popular Dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT, the most convenient, pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has ever produced.

Sold by Druggists everywhere at 75 cents per bottle.

Soothing and Bracing.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this celebrated invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere. m12

A Universal Medicine.—By what we eat, by the air we breathe, or by the water we drink, we can be made sick; because these effects end by producing impurity of blood. To regain health we must purify the blood by the organs of the stomach and bowels; these organs must be continued in the regular performance of that duty which nature has assigned them, and should there be any impediment, to what does experience point? To BRANDRETH'S PILLS, which cannot injure, and which will surely restore the bowels to the regular performance of their duties.

The dyspeptic, the billious, will find them a treasure of health; and the same may be said to all who are sick in any way. Take BRANDRETH'S PILLS and be cured.

Cure Your Cold. Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S

PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merits, to supersede all similar preparations. It is the surpassing you should be referred to try something else after the many nostrums you have made [illegible] compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but

NEWELL'S

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for a cold, badly attended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which by some unaccountable prescription had been converted into [illegible] Let me say to be "[illegible] that that prescription" was not

NEWELL'S

SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE; use it freely; give it to your children upon the slightest occurrence of a Cold, and you will be as much pleased with it as all [illegible] have become acquainted with its merits.

The Lost Lamb.

The marsh and moor were hid in fog,
The night was full with drizzly rains;
The guide's wife turned the smouldering log,
And spread the snowy counterpanes.

The child within its downy bed
She tucked with more than wonted care,
Then laid her own (with weary head,
And into dreams slipped half her prayer.

Past midnight and the guide awoke,
A [illegible] anguish filled the room,
[illegible]
The silence of the household gloom.

A [illegible] and yet again she heard
[illegible] startled slowly through the air,
[illegible]
[illegible] of affright.

Toward dawn it sounded yet again,
Plaintive and low, and faint and far,
'Twas like a childish cry of pain,
Or [illegible] as "Mamma, [illegible]."

She sprang from her bed and sought her child,
Still nestled in its cradle lay,
And [illegible] while sleeping Nature smiled
The first faint promise of the day.

Back to her bed the guide wife crept,
Her eyes half blind with tender tears,
"In God's own hand my darling's kept—
How foolish are a woman's fears!"

"'Twas the lamb, most like, has strayed the fold,
The [illegible] thing was bleating 'Ba,'
Which [illegible] the fog and cold,
Sounds to my mother's ears, 'Mamma.'"

Next day a piteous tale went round,
The village street was all agog,
A child's dead body had been found,
Still standing in the meadow bog.

The little [illegible] had strayed away;
The lingering mire had held them fast
Till death, slow dawning with the day,
Brought her its blest release at last,

And there, throughout the live-long night,
A helpless child of tender years,
Fainter and fainter with affright,
Had called "Mamma," to sleeping ears!

I knew her not; I only found
In printed page this tale of fear;
But when I cease to hear that sound,
I shall have ceased all sounds to hear.

A QUARTETTE OF GENERALS—REMINISCENCES OF SHERMAN, ETC.—The following is from the Leavenworth, Kansas, Conservative:

Citizens of Leavenworth will remember that there stood on Main street, between Delaware and Shawnee, in '57, 58 and '59, and the ground now occupied by handsome brick buildings, a shabby-looking, tumbling, cottonwood shell. The rooms above were reached by a crazy-looking stairway on the outside, up which none ever went without dread of their failing. Dingy signs informed the curious that within was a "law shop" kept by Hugh Ewing, Thomas Ewing, Jr., W. T. Sherman and Daniel McCook. They constituted the firm known here in the early part of '59 as Ewing, Sherman & McCook. All were ambitious, the one who has gained the greatest fame, perhaps, the least so of the associated lawyers. The third member of the firm fills to-day one of the proudest pages in the history of our land. W. T. Sherman never mingled in our public affairs. He lived among us for several months, having some landed interest here. An outlying part of our city plot is marked on the map as "Sherman's Addition." Prior to entering upon the practice of the law in this city, he lived for some time in the vicinity of Topeka, upon a farm of 160 acres, which we believe he still owns. His neighbors tell of his abrupt manner, reserved yet forcible speech and character. Previous to residing in Kansas, Sherman had lived in California, where, as miner, banker and lawyer, he made and lost a large fortune.

All of the firm were Buckeyes—the Ewings being sons of the able and venerable Thomas Ewing of that State. Sherman is connected with them by marriage, being a brother of Mrs. Thomas Ewing, Jr., we believe. He is a brother of Senator Sherman. McCook belonged to the since famous "fighting" family of that name. His father was the well-known Major McCook, killed in the old Morgan raid. One brother was killed at the first Bull Run battle. Another was the Brigadier General McCook, murdered by guerrillas in Southern Kentucky. Another is the famous Major General Cook of the armies of the Cumberland and Tennessee.

In politics the firm was unequally proportioned—Thomas Ewing, Jr., being a conservative Republican, while his brother Hugh, Sherman and McCook were all Democrats—the latter being an active local politician, and at one time elected Probate Judge of this county. The city being then largely Democratic and somewhat proslavery, the firm possessed considerable influence.

A good story is told of Sherman's experience as counsel, and of his dissolution of partnership to take the position held by him when the war broke out—that of President of the Military College of Louisiana.

While in the practice of the law here, Sherman was consulting partner, having an almost insurmountable objection to pleading in Court. He is accorded the possession, as a lawyer, of thorough knowledge of legal principles; a clear logical perception of the points and equity involved in any given case.

Shortly after the reception of the offer from the Governor of Louisiana in relation to the College, Sherman was compelled to appear before the Probate Judge. The other partners were busy, and Sherman, with his authorities and the case all mapped out, proceeded to Court. He returned in a rage two hours after. Something had gone wrong. He had been pettifogged out of the case by a sharp petty attorney opposed to him, in a way which was disgusting to his intellect and his convictions. He swore that he would have nothing more to do with the law in this State. That afternoon the business was closed, partnership dissolved, and in a very short time Sherman was on his way to a more congenial clime and occupation. The war found him in Louisiana, and in despite of his strong pro-slavery opinions, found him an intense and devoted patriot.

We met him here, and though but slightly acquainted, have remembered ever since the impression he left on the mind. He sphered himself to our perception as the most remarkable intellectual embodiment of force it had been our fortune to encounter. Once since we have met him, in our lines before Corinth, where he had command of the right wing of Halleck's magnificent army. The same impression was given then, combined with the idea of nervous vitality, angularity of character, and intense devotion to what he had in hand. Sherman is truly an idealist, even unto fanaticism, though in all probability if told so he would abruptly retort back an unbelieving sarcasm. The idea, or rather object, which rules him for the time, overrides everything else. Round the mouth we remember a gleam of saturnine humor, and in the eyes a look of kindness which would attract to him the caresses of children.

Hugh Ewing went early into the war as Colonel of an Ohio regiment, to which State he had returned before the rebellion. He was soon promoted to a Brigadiership. He has served honorably through most of the campaigns in the Central South, and is now, we believe, in Kentucky. He has been wounded more than once.

Dan. McCook's name has passed into history as one of the most gallant young lives offered as a sacrifice to secure American nationality. He was, we think, the second Captain mustered in from this State, in the Veteran First Kansas, as early as the beginning of May, '61. He was all through its famous Missouri campaign under Lyon. His friends here remember the jubilant expression to which his ambition gave vent when he first left for the field: "Here's for a Colonel's epaulettes or a soldier's grave." He knew not how prophetic was the utterance.

For a long time he was acting Brigadier, participating through all Rosecrans' famous campaigns in Tennessee. He was wounded, and after promotion as Brigadier, returned to Ohio sick, where he died.

The remaining member of the firm—General Thomas Ewing, Jr., is too well known to need particularizing by us. The war found him our Chief Justice. In the summer of '62 he resigned, raised the Eleventh Regiment, became its Colonel, and participated in all the engagements of the army of the frontier during the following fall and winter. He has for over a year been in command of the District of South East Missouri, with St. Louis as his headquarters.

Taking it all in all, the legal military firm of which we have been giving these random notes, is one of the most remarkable proofs of the versatility and adaptability of the American character that this war, fruitful as it is in examples, has yet produced.

Gentlemen: [illegible] Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 19th of February last, a fire occurred in our store, which was a total loss, and our safe [illegible] We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and upon opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that none of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed Messrs. McFARLAND [illegible] safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McF. & H.'s cellar, such as lard, pork, &c., that safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we laying in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called a

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING,
OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

IT ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness, which is the case with most remedies, or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

EUREKA

IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM

AT OREGON STATE FAIR IN 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco MECHANICS' INSTITUTE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these excellent Household Helps were found competing for popular favor. Though none of them are entitled to a Premium, we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Traver Bro., worthy of honorable mention." (NOTE.—No Premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern Manufacture.)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS,

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon garments and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its construction is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one. It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time Labor and Clothes.
